From the Rector

The 97th Annual Council of the Diocese of Southwestern Virginia will convene at the Hotel Roanoke on Friday, January 29th at two o'clock with Council Business. Stephanie Yoder will play and a number from our choir will sing at the Friday evening Eucharist. The preacher and keynote speaker for Council is the Rev. Dr. Dwight Zscheile, a priest and professor of Congregational Mission and Leadership at Luther Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Two of Professor Zscheile's books have been required reading for the priests and deacons in the diocese. I have also read two journal articles he has published. He addresses the future of the Episcopal Church from the perspective of an academic who specializes in missiology, i.e. Christian mission as well as missional methods and purpose. At the core of his work is the reminder that it is God's mission to reconcile creation and Creator. The Church is a part of that mission and does well to remember to be about spiritual ministries.

As a member of the Executive Board of the diocese, I am not aware of anything controversial about this year's council. There will be a resolution to change the name from council to convention. The Episcopal Church uses the term convention as do the majority of diocese so it would be more uniform. Council is a richer ecclesiastical term. The change must be approved by two annual councils so we will meet in council until 2018.

The purpose of any ecclesiastical gathering should be first and foremost to listen and that has never been more important than now as we re-frame our understanding of the church as having a mission to participating in the mission of God to reconcile creation. I know the importance of listening and pray we who participate in Council will hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church and implement plans accordingly.

Please be in prayer for the Council and particularly the delegates and musicians from Emmanuel who will participate.

See you Sunday if not before.

Candlemas

The Presentation of Our Lord

On Tuesday, February 2 at 7:00 p.m. we will celebrate Candlemas. This feast is sometimes known as the Purification of Saint Mary the Virgin. In the Eastern Church it has been called the Meeting of Christ with Simeon. Such a variety of names is sufficient testimony to the wealth of spiritual meaning that generations of Christians have discovered in this small incident.

The title, "The Presentation," reminds us of the Jewish law (Exodus 13:2; 22:29) that every firstborn son had to be dedicated to God in memory of the Israelites' deliverance from Egypt, when the firstborn sons of the Egyptians died and those of Israel were spared.

When Mary placed her small son into the arms of Simeon, it was the meeting of Old and New Dispensations. The old sacrifices, the burnt offerings and oblations, were done away; a new and perfect offering had come into the temple. God had provided himself a lamb for the burnt-offering (Genesis 22:8), his only Son. The offering was to be made once for all on the cross. At every Eucharist those who are in Christ recall that sinless offering and unite "themselves, their souls and bodies" with the selfoblation of their Lord and Savior. — from Lesser Feasts and Fasts, 2006

Confirmation Preparation

In the Episcopal Church one of the sacramental duties of a bishop is the confirmation of mature Christians. Bishop Bourlakas is scheduled to be at Emmanuel on the Feast of Pentecost, May 15, when he will confirm those who are "ready and have been duly prepared to make a mature public affirmation of their faith."

Those who should consider confirmation preparation include young people who were baptized as infants or who have not been baptized and believe they are now ready to affirm the baptismal covenant and vows made on their behalf as babies or desire to be baptized now. Our Formation Minister is planning confirmation preparation for youth that will be fun, conversational, experiential, and liturgical. Participants will commit to making this a priority for their spring schedules. Holy Week begins on March 20 and will factor heavily into the process. Young people who are interested in intentional preparation for this sacrament should contact John Simpson (emmanuelforma@gmail.com).

Adults who have not been baptized or who were baptized but have never been confirmed or received as Episcopalians should speak with Father Joe about their preparation for confirmation (or reception into the Episcopal Church). Adults who desire a deeper spiritual life should also speak with Father Joe about preparation for renewal of the Baptismal Covenant.
